

Marilyn Michaels paintings and memories A Multimedia Exhibit

On Saturday, May 7, 2011, at 7:30 PM, the curtain will rise on the fine art and memorabilia of legendary theater, television, and recording star Marilyn Michaels. Winner of the Critic Circle and Drama League Awards for her debut performance in "Catskills on Broadway" and scion of a great musical family (The renowned cantor, Moishe Oysher was her uncle, pioneering Cantor Fraydele Oysher was her mother, and Metropolitan Opera basso Harold Sternberg was her father.), Marilyn Michaels is America's "premiere woman of a thousand faces and voices."

The Jewish Heritage Museum of Monmouth County is honored to showcase yet another facet of this multi-talented part-time resident and wife of lifelong Freehold resident, lawyer Steven Portnoff. We present "Marilyn Michaels: Paintings and Memories – A Multimedia Exhibit", the New Jersey premiere of Miss Michaels' beautiful artwork. The exhibit includes oils, watercolors, pastels and sketches of subjects, including portraits of famous celebrities, still-lives, landscapes and abstracts. Also on display will be memorabilia from her prestigious musical family heritage.

Largely self-taught as an artist, except for a period of time at the prestigious High School of Music and Art in New York City, where she majored in art, Miss Michaels is an accomplished painter who has shown in New York and Palm Beach's finest galleries. Her work is in the collections of corporations and have been seen on such shows as "Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous", "The Tonight Show", "Fox News", and "Regis."

The exhibit will open with a Gala reception at the Museum, where participants will be able to "kibbitz and schmooze" with the artist as well as listen as her son, professional pianist Mark Wilk, plays background music on the Museum's beautiful new Brodmann Grand Piano. An admission of $36.00 per person will include admittance to the wine and cheese gala as well as a chance to win one of Marilyn's works of art.

Space is limited for this special event which promises to be a fun evening and a treat for the senses. Don't miss out, reserve your ticket now by calling the Museum (732-252-6990), by accessing its website, www.jhmomc.org. or by filling out the form on the back cover.

- Barbara Michaels

Come see these artworks in vivid color at the Gala Opening. Space is limited-Your exclusive ticket is available on the back cover!