

The Jewish Heritage Museum of Monmouth County and The Jewish Federation of Monmouth County

present

...a few of my favorite things

The Historical Memorabilia of Rabbi Sally J. Priesand
America's First Female Rabbi

“Reflections on My Life as a Rabbi”

A Lecture by Rabbi Sally J. Priesand

Sunday, February 21 at 2pm

$10 (museum members), $18 (non-members)

at

The Jewish Heritage Museum of Monmouth County

The Museum is located in the Mounts Corner Shopping Center, Route 537 and Wemrock Road,
Freehold, NJ 07728. (second story of the gray barn at rear of shopping center)

Exhibit runs February 11 - March 16, 2010

Museum Hours: Sundays 11:00am-3:00pm Tuesdays and Thursdays 10:00am to 3:00pm
Thursday Nights 6:00pm to 9:00pm Exhibit fee $3 (members), $5 (non-members)

Tickets available for purchase in advance during museum hours. For further information call 732-252-6990 / www.jhmomc.org

The Museum will display for the first time, gifts and correspondence, autographed books, articles and photographs, and other special artifacts from Rabbi Priesand's historic career. Many of the Rabbi's original abstract watercolor paintings will also be included in the exhibit.

All proceeds will be dedicated to the Museum's Permanent Timeline exhibit.
The JHMOMC is a 501 (c) (3) non profit organization and a handicapped accessible facility.